RAILROAD HOUSE,

NEAR THE STATION,

HANOVER, YORK COUNTY PA.,

THE undersigned would respectfully inform his numerous friends and the public generally, that he has leased the Hotel in Hanover, near the Depot, formerly kept by Mr. Jeremiah Kohler, and will spare no effort to conduct it in a manner that will give general satisfaction. His table will have the best the markets can afford—his chambers are spacious and comfortable—and he has laid in for his bar a full stock of choice wines and liquors. There is stabling for horses attached to the Hotel. It will be his constant endeavor to render the fullest satisfaction to his guests, making his house as near a home to them as possible. He asks a share of the public patronage, determined as he is to deserve a large part of it. Remember the Railroad House, near the Depot, Hanover, Pa. A. P. BAUGHER.

GLOBE INN,

YORK STREET, NEAR THE DIAMOND,

GETTYSBURG, PENN'A.

THE undersigned would most respectfully inform his numerous friends and the public generally, that he has purchased that long established and well known Hotel, the "Globe Inn," in York street, Gettysburg, and will spare no effort to conduct it in a manner that will not detract from its former high reputation. His table will have the best the market can afford—his chambers are spacious and comfortable—and he has laid in for his bar a full stock of wines and liquors. There is large stabling attached to the Hotel, which will be attended by attentive ostlers. It will be his constant endeavor to render the fullest satisfaction to his guests, making his house as near a home to them as possible. He asks a share of the public's patronage, determined as he is to deserve a large part of it. Remember, the "Globe Inn" is in York street, but near the Diamond, or Public Square.

PORT GRAPE WINE,

Used by Hundreds of Congregations for Church or Communion Purposes.

ALSO,

Excellent for Ladies and Weakly Persons

TO USE.

VINEYARDS, NEW JERSEY.

Speer's Port Grape Wine, Four Years Old.

THIS justly celebrated native Wine is made from the juice of the Oporto Grape, raised in this country. Its invaluable are unsurpassed by any other native Wine. Being the pure juice of the grape, produced under Mr. Speer's own personal supervision, its purity and genuineness are guaranteed. The youngest child may partake of its generous qualities, and the weakest invalid may use it to advantage. It is particularly beneficial to the aged and debilitated, and suited to the various ailments that afflict the weaker sex. It is, in every respect,

Tonic and Strengthening Properties

A WINE TO BE RELIED ON.

Invalids use Speer's Port Grape Wine.
Females use Speer's Port Grape Wine.
Weakly persons find a benefit by its use.
Speer's Wines in Hospitals are preferred to other wines.

HOOFLAND'S
GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

Hoofland's German Tonic.

THE GREAT REMEDIES

FOR ALL DISEASES OF

THE LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medically termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

Hoofland's German Bitters.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

Hoofland's German Tonic.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medical virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

CONSTIPATION, FLATULENCE, INWARD PILES, FULLNESS OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, NAUSEA, HEART-BURN, DISGUST FOR FOOD, FULLNESS OR WEIGHT IN THE STOMACH, SOUR ERUCTATIONS, SINKING OR FLUTTERING AT THE PIT OF THE STOMACH, SWIMMING OF THE HEAD, HURRIED OR DIFFICULT BREATHING, FLUTTERING AT THE HEART, CHOKING OR SUFFOCATING SENSATIONS WHEN IN A LYING POSTURE, DIMNESS OF VISION, DOTS OR WEBS BEFORE THE SIGHT, DULL PAIN IN THE HEAD, DEFICIENCY OF PERSPIRATION, YELLOWNESS OF THE SKIN AND EYES, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK, CHEST, LIMBS, ETC., SUDDEN FLUSHES OF HEAT, BURNING IN THE FLESH, CONSTANT IMAGININGS OF EVIL, AND GREAT DEPRESSION OF SPIRITS.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,

Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposures, Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instill new life into the veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietors, but space will allow of the publication of but few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

Hon. Geo. W. Woodward,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:

Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.

"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD."

Hon. James Thompson,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.

From Rev. E. D. Fendall,

Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philada.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours truly, E. D. FENDALL.

THERE'S NOTHING LOST.

There's nothing lost. The tiniest flower
That grows within the darkest vale,
Though lost to view has still the power
The rarest perfume to exhale:
That perfume, borne on zephyr's wings,
May visit some lone sick one's bed,
And like the balm affection brings,
'Twill scatter gladness round her head.

There's nothing lost. The drop of dew,
That trembles in the rosebud's breast,
Will seek its home of ether blue,
And fall again as pure and blest—
Perchance to revel in the spray,
Or moisten the dry parching sod,
Or mingle in the fountain's play,
Or sparkle in the bow of God.

There's nothing lost. The seed that's cast
By careless hands upon the ground,
Will yet take root and may at last
A green and glorious tree be found;
Beneath its shade some pilgrim may
Seek shelter from the heat of noon,
While in its bows the breezes play,
And song-birds sing their sweetest tune.

There's nothing lost. The slightest tone,
Or whisper from a loved one's voice,
May melt a heart of hardest stone,
And make the saddest heart rejoice.
And then, again, the careless word
Our thoughtless lips too often speak,
May touch a heart already stirred,
And cause that troubled heart to speak.

There's nothing lost. The faintest strain
Of breathings from some dear one's lute,
In memory's dream may come again,
Though every mournful string be mute.
The music of some happier hour—
The harp that swells with love's own words,
May thrill the soul with deepest power,
When still the hands that swept its chords.

THE HUMAN EYE.—The language of the eye is very hard to counterfeit. You can read in the eyes of your companion, while you walk, whether your argument hits him, though his tongue will not confess it. There is a look by which a man shows he is going to say a thing and a look when he has said it. Vain and forgotten are all the offices of hospitality, if there be no holiday in the eye. How many furtive invitations are avowed by the eye, though dissembled by the lips. A man comes away from a company; he has heard no important remark, but, if in sympathy with the society, he is cognizant of such a stream of life as has been flowing to him through the eye. There are eyes that give no more admission into them than blue berries, others are liquid and deep wells that men might fall into, and others are oppressive and devouring, and take too much notice. There are asking and assenting eyes, eyes full of faith—some of good and some of sinister omen.

WITHOUT AN ENEMY.—Heaven help the man who imagines he can dodge enemies by trying to please everybody. If such even succeeded we should be glad of it—not that we believe in a man going through the world trying to find beams to knock his head against, disputing every man's opinion, fighting and elbowing and crowding all who differ with him. That, again, is another extreme. Other people have a right to their opinions; so have you. Don't fall into the error of supposing that they will respect you less for maintaining it, or respect you more for turning your coat every day to match the color of theirs. Wear your own colors, in spite of wind and weather, storm or sunshine. It costs the vascillating and irresolute ten times the trouble to wind and shuffle and twist that it does honest, manly independence to stand its ground.

NATURE UNCHANGED.—Man dies, but nature is eternal. The seasons keep their appointed time; day returns with its golden splendor, and night with its eloquent mystery. The same stars which lit the ghastly battle-field of Troy, rough with the dead bodies of ancient heroes—which shone on the marble streets of imperial Rome, and on the sad eyes of vigil-keepers in the living glow of inspiration—the watch fires of the angels which, through centuries of devastation and change, have still burned on unceasingly—speak to us as they did to Dante and Shakespear, and Milton, of the divine glory, the omnipotence, the everlasting beauty and love of God.

BEAUTY.—Let me see a woman possessing the beauty of a meek and modest deportment—of an eye that bespeaks intelligence and purity within—of the lips that speak no guile; let me see in her a kind, benevolent disposition, a heart that can sympathize with distress, and I will never ask for the beauty that dwells in ruby lips, or the flowing tresses, or the snowy hands, or the forty other et ceteras upon which our poets have harped for so many ages. These fade when touched by the hand of time, but those ever-enduring qualities of the heart shall outlive their religion, and grow brighter and fresher as the ages of eternity roll away.

WANTED.—A bride who is willing to commence housekeeping in the same style in which her parents began.

Twenty fashionable young ladies, dare to be seen wielding a dust-brush, or darning their brothers' stockings, if a gentleman should happen to make an early call.

Ten independent young ladies of "good families," who dare to wear their last winter's bonnets to church on a fine Sunday.

Fifteen young ladies of sufficient age to go into company, who dare confess they ever made a loaf of bread or a pudding.

PERSEVERANCE.—If you wish to do good, do good; if you wish to assist people, assist people. The only way to learn to do a thing is to do it; and that implies, before you learn to do right, you will do wrong—you will make blunders, you will have failures; but persevere, and in the end you will learn your lessons, and many other lessons by the way.

AN enterprising genius in Paris proposes to organize a company to dig for gold in the cemeteries. He calculates that there are buried in Paris every day more than one hundred and twenty-five persons; that at least ten have auriferous jaws, and that in these ten there may be ten auriferous teeth.

PURE SPITE.—"My 'pinion is," said a philosophical old lady, of much experience and observation, "that any man as dies upon washin' day, does it out of pure spite."

A BEAUTIFUL daughter of a wealthy Cincinnati merchant ran away with an adventurer a few days since, and returned within a week, disgusted, disgraced, deserted and very dejected.

A CLINCHER.—An old "soak" wants to know, if water will destroy boots what must be its fearful effects on the delicate linings of the stomach. He is afraid to try it.

"MEET GERTRUDE."

The Selma Messenger tells the following capital story, as genuine and authentic:

Among the most enterprising and industrious merchants of Selma, is one whom we will call Smith, principally because it isn't his name, who is blessed with a most exemplary wife in all respects save one—she is of rather a jealous disposition. Mr. Smith has been of late very much engrossed in his business, and has often consumed his evenings over his ledger, instead of in the bosom of his family as has been his custom for years. In reply to the queries of Mrs. S. on the subject, he would always say that he was employed in his business. She did not understand how business could take up so much of his time and her suspicions were aroused that all was not right. Visions of hours spent by her husband in other female society than her own haunted her mind, and she made an inward vow to watch and see for herself.

Soon after arriving at this resolution, a telegram arrived for her husband and was sent to his office, which was closed, as he had gone to his supper. The carrier went to his house and delivered it to his servant at the door. The gentleman not having arrived, it was handed to his wife, who with true feminine curiosity read it. It was plain and short:

"MONTGOMERY, Dec —, 1867.
"Mr. Smith: Meet Gertrude to-night."

Here was a horrible confirmation of her worst fears. Controlling herself as best she could, she laid the dispatch by his plate. He came in, read it, and said he "would have to go to town after supper, and might not be back till late; she need not sit up for him." He hurried through his meal, took his hat, and walked hurriedly down the street. Before he had turned the corner his wife was following him swiftly and noiselessly. He went straight on, she close behind, until he reached the wharf. After an apparent inspection of the surroundings, he stepped down the hill and took a seat in the office of the Magnolia.

His wife took a position where she could see him through the glass door, and waited for a finale—which was expected in the shape of a Gertrude whom her faithless spouse was to meet. Time dragged on wearily, and the lady became drowsy and at last fell into a doze, from which she was aroused by the shrill whistle of an approaching steamer.—Nearer and nearer she came, and as she rounded to, the name "Gertrude," in large, brightly painted letters, met the view of the jealous wife, and a stentorian voice inquiring if Smith was on hand, completed her awakening.

At a glance the position was realized, and the poor woman could have cried for vexation as she saw her husband and another gentleman hurriedly transacting some business within a few feet of her. At that moment a tipsy negro came stumbling along, and seeing a woman's dress half hidden among the bales and boxes of merchandise, seized her, exclaiming, "Come out of dar, ole gal." Her scream of terror brought her husband to the scene, whose astonishment may be imagined. She fell into his arms with a hysterical burst of sobs, and explanations ensued.

The party returned home in a hack, and somebody's head was on somebody's bosom all the way. Since that time all that Smith has to do to avert a scolding is to insinuate that he will "meet Gertrude."

A SMOKING DARKEY.—Mr. Robert E. Wright, of Allentown, had in his employ a half-grown black boy, who lately came from the South. On Monday Mr. Wright gave the boy a one-dollar bill, with orders to purchase some material for making a smoke in the smoke house. The darkey started off, and with all good intentions he purchased twenty cigars at five cents each. With these he returned home, and in obedience to his master's instruction, as the boy thought, without saying a word to any one, went to the smoke house, and shutting himself therein, commenced to smoke the meat with the cigars. His lengthened absence awakened surprise at the house, and a member of the family went in search, and on opening the smoke house door, the darkey was found quietly seated and puffing away at the eighteenth cigar in the dense smoke. As the door opened, the obedient boy seeing the smoke pass out, exclaimed: "Shut up dat door dar. Don't you see the smoke goern out?" Mr. Wright offers a dollar more for a similar trick.—Easton Press.

UGLY MEN.—In the eastern part of Ohio there resides a man named Brown, now a Justice of the Peace, and a very sensible man, but, by common consent, the ugliest individual in the West, being long, gaunt, sallow and awry, with a gait like a kangaroo. One day he was hunting, and on one of the mountain roads he met a man on foot and alone, who was longer, gaunter, and more sallow, by all odds, than himself. He could give the Squire fifty and beat him. Without saying a word, Brown raised his gun and deliberately leveled it at the stranger.

"For God's sake, don't shoot," shouted the man in alarm.

"Stranger," replied Brown, "I swore ten years ago that if ever I met a man uglier than I was I'd shoot him, and you are the first one I've seen."

The stranger, after taking a careful survey of his rival, replied:

"Well, captain, if I look any worse than you do, shoot; I don't want to live any longer!"

OLD JIM G—— was an almighty mean man, but when he joined the church, people thought it might make him liberal, so one of the elders called on him for a small contribution. Jim heard him patiently through and then responded: "I'll tell you what it is, brother A——, if I find my religion genuine I will pay brother ——— a dollar the next time he comes; but I'll be blowed if I like to pay money for an article before I know it's all right."

MIXED RELATIONSHIP.—A citizen of this county, a widower with one son, married an estimable lady as his second wife. Years afterward his son, upon reaching man's estate, fell in love with and married this lady's younger sister. The resulting relationships are: the younger man's father is also his brother-in-law, the nephew of the son is also the nephew of the father, the father's younger children will be the young man's nephews and half-brothers, and the young man's wife is her stepmother's sister.—Iowa Voter.

CARRYING THE FLAG THROUGH THE SOUTH.

Sergeant Bates, who is carrying the Stars and Stripes through the South, unarmed and without money, is a brave Democratic soldier of Wisconsin, who served with credit in the Federal army during the war. Wearied with the taunts of the Radicals of his native place, who declared that the Southern people were outlaws, and that they would not hesitate to take the life of any man, white or black, suspected of Unionism, he declared that he, an ex-soldier, could march through the South with the Union flag exposed, without a cent in his pocket, and not only escape bodily harm, but receive hospitable treatment from the people whom the Radicals so persistently abused and misrepresented. A moneied Radical agreed to bet a certain sum that he would be killed, and agreed that, in that event, he would pay the sum to the "foolhardy young man's family." The Sergeant commenced his journey at Vicksburg, and on the 17th arrived at Montgomery, Alabama, having passed through Jackson, Mississippi. He goes next to Milledgeville, Georgia; thence to Columbia, South Carolina; thence to Raleigh, North Carolina; thence to Richmond, and thence to Washington, which city he proposes to reach about the 4th of July. So far he has received nothing but kindness from the people along the route—in fact, upon his arrival at the cities and towns the people turn out with bands of music and escort him to the best hotels, where he is made the guest of the corporation. To these facts, however, which show the amicable disposition of the Southern people, the Radical press and leaders steadfastly close their eyes and ears. Their dupes are kept in studied ignorance of Sergeant Bates and his cordial and truly "loyal" receptions by the downtrodden people of the South. Such facts show the enormity of giving the Southern States over to the negroes, and hence they are universally ignored, or, if alluded to at all, only with sneers.—Patriot & Union.

A NEGRO PRAYER MEETING.—I strolled into a colored meeting yesterday (Sunday) held in a large building near the hotel at which I tarry. The building was filled to its utmost capacity, and a darker scene I never beheld.

I had often heard of the eccentric character of the negro meetings South, and I will confess that curiosity was my prevailing motive in attending. As I entered, the preacher, who had not yet reached the highest pitch of voice, was drawing tears from the eyes of his hearers by narrating how the wicked Jews "pulled de har" of Jesus in taking him from the judgment hall. As the speaker warmed with the subject, the shouting, groaning and yelling became terrific, and when his voice finally reached the highest pitch, the scene became one which I shall never forget, and can but poorly describe. One after another sprang up, writhing and twisting their bodies into all kinds of contortions, some at a single bound throwing themselves over two or three seats, some spinning around like a top, while one girl was in the aisle imitating, with exact precision, though unconsciously, the motions of a toy called "Dancing Jack." Not unfrequently some would lie down and roll the entire length of the aisle. One stalwart negro was so violent in his demonstrations that five or six men were compelled to lay him upon a bench and held him down.

As the speaker lowered his voice, the audience became more quiet, till order again prevailed. These physical exhibitions I am compelled to believe are involuntary, and result from their excitable nature. It is not what the preacher says in many instances, but the way he says it, that causes this wild excitement. A more empty, senseless, unmeaning harangue, I never heard than the minister's sermon. I like Aunt Judy's idea of "holl-rin" in meeting; she says: "Taint de rale grace; honey; 'taint de sure glory. You holler too loud. When you gits de dove in your heart and de Lamb on your bosom, you'll feel as if you was in dat stable at Beth'lem, and de blessed Virgin had lent you de sleepin' baby to hold."—Cor. Erie Republican.

TROTTING HORSE SOLD BY THE POUND.—The celebrated trotting stallion Bashaw jr, who has a record throughout the West as a "footer and stager," was purchased by A. F. Fawcett, the former owner of Dexter, in Chicago, a few days since. It is stated by a Chicago paper that Mr. Fawcett requested Mr. David Kelley, the owner of the horse, to name his price, when the latter replied jocularly that he would sell him for fourteen dollars and fifty cents per pound, after the manner of selling cattle. Mr. Fawcett immediately accepted the proposition. The horse was accordingly put upon the scales, and weighed one thousand and forty pounds, making the amount to be paid fifteen thousand and eighty dollars.

WONDERFUL DISCOVERY.—Mr. Sample Anderson, of this place, has discovered what is said to be a rich gold mine, near this place. Our jewelers can pronounce it nothing else. Nitric acid produces no visible effect on the metal. So pile in, ye gold worshippers, to this new Eldorado.—Tyrone Herald.

HORACE GREELY said at a meeting of the Congressional Temperance Society, that "more men lost their lives during the war on account of drunken officers in command than were lost by rebel bullets." Horace has been saying some rather severe things of General Grant lately.

A SCURILOUS Western print proposes to substitute Yates for Washburne as the keeper of Grant's conscience, on the ground that Yates knows, better than any other man in Congress, "how Grant feels when he gets up next morning."

THE New York Tribune, looking to the condition of things in the South, exclaims, "Root, hog, or die!" But, says the Louisville Journal, there are no hogs there to root. The niggers have stolen them—every squealer and grunter.

AN Illinois man attempted to hang himself the other day, but was cut down by his wife, who beat him soundly for his foolishness.

AN exchange declares that John Covode says "Grant has the slickedest way of not selling the truth that he ever heerd."

IT is stated that cattle belonging to Philip F. Wisler, of Bucks county, Pa., are dying with the rinderpest.

NEAR Boston there are thirteen blind children, the descendants of one blind man residing in that city.

THERE is an Isabella grape vine at Indiana, Pa., which produced last summer 1,700 bunches of [illegible] grapes.

THE days are growing gratifyingly longer at both ends.

IMPEACHMENT OF THE PRESIDENT!

The Radicals in Congress have entered upon the desperate step of impeaching the President of the United States! In so startling an emergency, thinking men may well ask, "what are we coming to?" The answer is not at hand, but this may be taken as certain, that a much longer continuance of that party in power will result in general prostration and ruin, and the ultimate wreck of our institutions.

Let us glance at things as they stand. The President, in pursuance of a right clearly his by the Constitution, and never before disputed, removed an obnoxious Secretary, one not of his own appointing, from the Cabinet. He called General Grant to the place, and he accepted, pledging himself to surrender it to the President in the event of the Senate attempting to force Stanton back. The Senate did make the attempt, and Grant, instead of adhering to his promise, unblushingly violated it, and gave Stanton possession. Here the bottom of the trouble is found—here responsibility for whatever may follow must attach. The Senate is first to blame, but Grant had it in his power easily to thwart its unconstitutional and disturbing action. As he did not, the heavier weight is upon his shoulders, and there it will rest to his dying day. But for him, Stanton would still be outside of the walls of the War Department, and the country at peace.

Grant's duplicity compelled the President to make another nomination, in order to get the question before the Supreme Court. He named Gen. Lorenzo Thomas as Stanton's successor. Instantly the Senate is in commotion. "Impeach him!" "Impeach him!" yell Radical demagogues and fanatics—and ere the voice of the press or people can be heard, they rush the desperate measure through one branch, and knock at the doors of the other for indecent haste in its consummation.

To such a pass has Radical malignity brought the affairs of this once great nation. Patience, people—patience!—Our fervent hope is that a more evil day may not come upon us as a people—but if it does, white men must meet it as becomes white men!

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The Democratic National Executive Committee, at their meeting in Washington on the 22d, named New York as the place, and the 4th of July as the time, for the holding of the Democratic National Convention to nominate candidates for President and Vice President of the United States. Whilst members differed in their preferences as to time and place, the proceedings were conducted with harmony and good feeling.

If anything were wanting to insure the success of the candidates to be chosen at New York, it seems to us that the present revolutionary course of the Radicals in Congress would furnish it. It cannot be that the people of this once free and happy country will sacrifice their dearest rights and highest interests, merely to keep a set of ranting demagogues and madmen in office, rolling in luxury and extravagance, to be paid for out of the hard earnings of white labor in the North.

The ravings of the Radicals have but this object—office and plunder. Will the masses longer confide power in their hands? We do not believe it. Give us re-union and a white man's government, with peace and prosperity—and down with despotism, negroism and agitation!—will be the verdict of the ballot-box next November. Mark that!

MORE VICTORIES!

Altoona and Hollidaysburg.

The Democracy of Altoona, last week, achieved a decided victory, electing a Democratic Mayor, City Treasurer, and ten of the twelve members of the City Council.

At the election in Hollidaysburg, on Friday last, the Democrats elected their ticket by a majority of sixty-five, a Democratic gain over last fall of forty.

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC VICTORY!—The Democrats of Frederick city, Md., on Monday last, elected their Mayor, Aldermen and Council, by an average majority of 140. The Radicals, conscious of their own want of strength, got up a "people's ticket," with several weak-kneed Democrats upon it, but it was "floored" to the emphatic extent already stated.

AND STILL THEY COME.—The election for Mayor and Aldermen of Burlington, the old capital of Iowa, has resulted in a clean sweep for the Democracy, for the first time for many years. They carry the city government throughout, electing the Mayor, four of the six Aldermen, the Marshal, &c. The majority for Mayor is 325; and the Marshal is elected by 602.

The ball keeps rolling!

THE President has nominated Gen. McClellan as Minister to England, in place of Mr. Adams, resigned. Will the Senate have the manliness to confirm this gallant leader of the Army of the Potomac—the hero of Antietam? We shall see.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON nominated to the Senate, on Monday, Hon. Thomas Ewing, Sr., of Ohio, to be Secretary of War, in place of Mr. Stanton, removed. He also sent to the Senate a communication vindicating his right to remove Stanton under the Constitution. The argument is clear and sound, but we can hardly hope that it will have any effect upon the fanatics now abusing power at Washington.

THE Democracy of New York fired one hundred guns in the park on Monday, in honor of the selection of that city as the place for holding the Democratic National Convention.

ARE not the people getting tired of paying high taxes to keep Radical demagogues in office and Radical negroes in idleness? The question comes home to tax-paying Republicans as well as Democrats.

ONE of the main reasons for the President's impeachment by the Radicals is, that he will not second them in the attempt to make the negro the equal, and in some States the superior, of the white man. "That's what's the matter"

THE Democratic party will lose nothing by the infamous course of the Radicals in Congress. But the Radical party will suffer from it every day of its miserable existence.

QUAKING!—Radical Senator Morton, of Indiana, said to Mr. Beck, Democrat, of the House, on Monday morning, that pressing the impeachment question would seriously damage the prospects of the Republican party. No doubt of it.

THE Fenians of the Radical sect are reported to be preparing for a raid on the British territory.

WASHINGTON.

Removal of Edwin M. Stanton.

Adjutant General Thomas appointed Secretary of War.

Great Excitement and Nervousness in Congress.

Impeachment again Threatened.

The Senate was electrified on Friday by a brief message from the President, in which he stated that he had removed Edwin M. Stanton, and appointed General Lorenzo Thomas, Adjutant General of the United States Army, to the position of Secretary of War. This caused great commotion among the Radical Senators, who at once voted an executive session. Radicals raved, whilst Democrats and Conservatives maintained calm tempers, confident that the Constitution was on the President's side. Senator Wilson introduced a resolution declaring that "the President has no power to remove the Secretary of War, and designate another officer to perform the duties of that office." The debate which followed was earnest and spirited. Senators Hendricks, Reverdy Johnson, and others, made powerful arguments in support of the President's power to choose his own Cabinet—the Constitution always gave him that right, and Congress could not take it from him. The resolution passed, by almost a party vote.

Intense excitement also prevailed in the House, and throughout the city. Radicals ran to Stanton, to advise him to keep possession of the office—not to leave it for a moment—even to sleep there—which he did.

Many Conservatives visited the President, to assure him of their hearty endorsement of his position.

The Radical threat of impeachment was revived. But the President remained calm and unmoved, asserting that there was no occasion for excitement—that he relied upon civil process to vindicate his right as President to get rid of Stanton—and that he felt quite certain the Supreme Court would sustain him.

General Thomas called upon Stanton and handed him the President's order of removal. Stanton declined to go, and after a long talk, General Thomas retired.

Stanton then had the War office placed under double guard of soldiers, with instructions to admit no one unless by his permission.

On Saturday, Stanton made an affidavit before Judge Carter, of the District Court, against General Thomas, for obstructing the tenure-of-office law.—Thomas was arrested by Marshal Gooding, and taken before Judge Carter, who released him on $5,000 bail. At half-past eleven, Gen. Thomas again went to the War Department and demanded possession. Stanton persisted in his determination to hold on. After some further parley, Thomas retired, and repaired to the Executive Mansion.

The President directed an application to be made to the Supreme Court for a mandamus, with the view of making Stanton show under and by what authority he retains possession of the War Department.

In the meantime many letters and despatches were received by the President, from different parts of the country, containing assurances of approbation and support. The Radicals were encouraged in the same way.

Impeachment.

The Senate adjourned early, and the Radical members spent most of the day in caucus. In the House, at 2 P. M., Thaddeus Stevens rose to make a report from the Committee on Reconstruction, ending with the resolution, "That Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, be impeached of high crimes and misdemeanors." Mr. Stevens then gave way for other members to discuss the question, and Mr. Brooks took the floor. In the course of an able speech, he warned the House that if in their mad violence they should attempt to remove the President, except by due process of impeachment, the people would never submit. Messrs. Spalding, Bingham and Baker addressed the House in favor of the resolution, and Mr. Phelps opposed it. Messrs. Kelley and Logan also spoke in favor of impeachment, and Mr. Beck opposed it. Mr. Holman sent Washington's farewell address to the Clerk's desk, with the request that it be read, but was objected to as not in order. Mr. Ingersoll took the floor, and argued in favor of the resolution. At the close of his speech, the House adjourned at 11 o'clock at night.

Impeachment Resolutions Passed by the House.

Upon the assembling of the House on Monday, the discussion of the impeachment resolution was renewed. Messrs. Ashley, Boutwell, and others, advocated, and Messrs. Woodward, Wood, Niblack, Marshall, and others, opposed it. An immense crowd was in attendance, and a large police force was necessary to preserve order in the galleries. The floor presented an indescribable scene of excitement, many of the Radical members needing something of the kind to keep their courage up to the impeaching point. At 4.55 P. M., the vote was taken, and it resulted in 126 yeas to 47 nays, all the Radicals but two (Carey, of Ohio, and Stewart, of New York,) voting in the affirmative. The result was received amidst the utmost quiet, many of the Radicals evidently just beginning to appreciate the enormous gravity of the step.

Messrs. Stevens and Bingham were appointed a committee to present the resolution of impeachment to the Senate, and Messrs. Boutwell, Stevens, Bingham, Wilson, Logan, Julian and Ward a committee to prepare articles of impeachment. The House then adjourned.

The mode of procedure under the impeachment resolution will be this: The committee of two will proceed to the bar of the Senate and inform that body that the House of Representatives has impeached Andrew Johnson for high crimes and misdemeanors. The committee will then retire, and the Senate notify the House that it is prepared to receive any further communication on the subject. The House committee of seven will then prepare charges and specifications, and present them to the Senate. The trial will thus commence.

The Radicals calculate that they will be ready with their impeachment articles by to-morrow, but it is not supposed that the trial can be concluded in less than thirty days, as time will have to be allowed the President to prepare his defence. But it is possible the issue may be determined in advance, by the Supreme Court pronouncing the civil office tenure bill unconstitutional. An effort will be made to secure the action of the Court at once.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The House committee on impeachment have presented articles to the Senate, and that body has referred them to a select committee of seven.

WASHINGTON affairs at last advices had a more quiet look. Thaddeus Stevens's committee was engaged in hatching up charges against the President, but excitement had measurably abated. The "sober second thought" is at work.

GEN. THOMAS DISCHARGED.

Gen. Thomas, who was arrested on Saturday on the charge preferred by Mr. Stanton of unlawfully accepting the appointment of Secretary of War and attempting to exercise its duties, and who was bailed to appear before the Court on Wednesday, appeared accordingly, and, strange as it may seem, was unconditionally discharged.

Judge Carter, (an intense Radical,) either believes that Gen. Thomas acted within the bounds of law, thus at once clearing the President; or took this course at the advise of Radical politicians to prevent a writ of habeas corpus from the Supreme Court, and thus stave off a decision by that body. If the latter, he must encounter the condemnation of every fair-minded man.

HANS GEARY.

Gov. Geary, on Saturday, sent the following telegram to Simon Cameron, at Washington:

"The news to-day has created a profound sensation in Pennsylvania. The spirit of '61 seems again to pervade the Keystone State. Troops are rapidly tendering their services to sustain the laws. Let Congress stand firm."

In Harrisburg the publication of this despatch merely created laughter among all parties, and a prominent ex-officer of the State, a Republican, publicly pronounced Geary an "old fool." The Patriot & Union says that nobody believes a single man has tendered his services in the cause of Rump usurpation.

But there is a serious side to this matter. Should internecine war result from the violent efforts of the Radicals to prevent the President from resorting to the Courts to recover constitutional authority over his subordinates, the people of Pennsylvania will hold John W. Geary to a strict accountability. The blood that may be spilled will rest upon his hands, and his name will go down to posterity blackened and accursed.

DESPATCHES TO THE PRESIDENT.

The Constitutional Union Committee of Allegheny co., Pa., telegraphs the President: "Your friends here are moving. Remain firm. Be thou ruler even in the midst among thine enemies."

The Democracy of New London, Conn, pledge the President their "most hearty support in money, votes and men."

New York telegraphs: "Every decent man in New York city is with you. We will take care of all Gov. Geary's men. God bless you. We are ready for the issue."

New Bedford, Mass., says to the President: "You will be sustained in executing the laws, under the constitution, in New England. Stand firm."

From Maysville, Ky.: "Will one regiment of Irish be of any service to you? Answer."

Several companies to sustain the President are being formed at Bedford, in this State. Three companies could be ready in forty-eight hours.

It is most devoutly to be hoped that the Radicals in Congress will not force their party designs to the bloody issue. The President is for a solution of all difficulties by the Courts. Whatever of violence may follow must be laid at the door of the Radicals.

THE PEOPLE SPEAKING!—On Monday evening, the McClellan Club of the Twentieth Ward, Philadelphia, held a spirited meeting, at which telling speeches were made and resolutions adopted to stand by the President—"to perish or maintain inviolate the Constitution"—and calling upon "the people, without distinction of party, to drive the bold invaders of our liberties from power, that peace, prosperity and happiness may once more dawn upon the country."

The Fifteenth Ward Democratic Club also held a meeting, at which Colonel Leckler, Colonel Greene, and others, made eloquent and enthusiastic speeches, denouncing the action of the "Rump" Congress, and endorsing the President in the position he has taken.

The Young Men's Keystone Club also met in full numbers. Stirring speeches were made, and the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the services of the Club be tended to the President in defence of his constitutional authority as Chief Executive of the nation.

The Club preserves a regular regimental organization, being officered in military style.

BOTH Houses of the New Jersey Legislature have passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That the President of the United States, in his struggle against the encroachments of the Radical majority of Congress, has our hearty sympathy, and we hereby request the Joint Committee on Federal Relations to prepare substantial resolutions, to be submitted at the earliest moment in both Houses of this Legislature, expressive of our feelings in regard to the exigency of public affairs.

THE Radicals shout, stand by Congress. "This," says the New Haven Register, "means anarchy and revolution. We say to every man—'Stand by the Constitution.' The tenure-of-office bill is not constitutional, in the opinion of the most distinguished lawyers in the country—Stanton among the number. The President proposes to so regard it, and leave it to the courts to decide. Congress threatens impeachment, and the Tribune howls 'stand by Congress.' Blood is getting excited. Let the President follow the Constitution, and he will be enthusiastically supported. If we are to have a 'little more blood-letting,' let us be prepared for it. The President should have done months ago, what he has just done. If war is what these Radical Jacobins want, war let them have. It is no affair of ours. The courts are open, and competent to decide the question at issue. We insist that they shall be permitted to do so. Stand by the Constitution. If necessary, fight for the Constitution.—This is about the only thing left for us to do, which can be of any avail. Let us stop right here, and decide what must be done to preserve our liberties, and the government of our fathers."

THE CONSTITUTION AND ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.—It is of vital importance to the very existence of a constitutional government that the President shall have the selection of his Cabinet. This infamous Rump Congress seeks to abrogate this principle, and establish a military despotism. It is now necessary for freemen to decide between the support of a constitutional President and anarchy. So says the Age, and we believe that the people of the country will soon be, if they are not now, of the same mind.

GOV. BULLOCK, of Massachusetts, has vetoed the bill repealing the State constabulary law. This action shows how little Radical officials regard the wishes of the people. The people of that State last fall elected a Legislature specially pledged to the repeal of that law, but the Radical Governor, like the Radicals in the Rump Congress, is determined that the people shall not rule or have their way in anything.

WHAT REPUBLICAN PAPERS SAY.

The New York Times, a Republican paper, and of course hostile to President Johnson, insists that the tenure of office bill be submitted to the Supreme Court before impeachment be pushed by Congress. It reasons, we think very clearly, thus:

There can be no doubt, we presume, in any one's mind that the Supreme Court is the proper tribunal for the decision of the question involved in this particular conflict between the President and Congress. It is not a political question in any such sense as could exclude it from the jurisdiction of that court. It does not involve any exercise of political sovereignty, as the reconstruction acts are said to do. It is simply a question concerning the relative powers and rights of the executive and the legislative departments in the matter of appointment and removal of civil officers of the government. Does the constitution confer on the President official power which Congress, by the tenure-of-office bill, seeks to invade and take from him? It is purely a question of interpretation and construction, and clearly one which neither party can claim to decide for itself. Both must submit to the judgment of the common arbiter which the constitution itself provides.

The impeachment of the President, if pushed to trial in advance of such a decision by the Supreme Court, is a violation of this principle. It is an attempt of one of the parties to the controversy to decide it for both. It assumes that Congress had a right to pass the law—and that the President, in denying that right, commits a crime and incurs a penalty—not only the penalty which the law itself prescribes, but the higher penalty of removal from office which follows conviction under process of impeachment. And it makes the Senate, which is one of the parties to the enactment of the law, a court for trying the President for what is an offence only as the law itself makes it one, and gives the Senate the full power also of deciding the constitutionality of its own action. Suppose the House should impeach the President and the Senate should convict him and depose him from office for having acted in violation of this law; and the Supreme Court should afterward, in due course of its judicial action, decide the law to be unconstitutional, what would be the position of the President and Senate before the country? Must the President be punished for maintaining the authority of the constitution against an invalid law? Or is the Senate's judgment of the constitution to override that of the Supreme Court?

In our judgment, the impeachment of the President is wholly out of place so long as the constitutionality of this law is in controversy. If the law is unconstitutional, and therefore null and void, then the President has committed no offence and done nothing to deserve impeachment. If the law is valid, then he has been guilty of a "high misdemeanor," under the definition of the law itself, and may be arraigned, tried and punished therefor. And neither the House nor the Senate is the proper tribunal for deciding this question. It certainly would be a very extraordinary spectacle to see Congress pass a law creating an offence and prescribing a penalty, and then acting at once as prosecutor, judge, jury and executioner upon the President for violation of its provisions. Such a proceeding confounds all our ideas of the distribution of power among different departments of the government. We do not believe the Senate will take such action in the present case. That body will probably await the action of the Supreme Court in the case growing out of Mr. Stanton's proceedings against General Thomas. If the law is sustained by the court, impeachment may go on. If not, it will probably be dropped—for we do not think the Senate is prepared to set aside that court or disregard its decisions altogether.

The New York Sun, intensely Radical as it is, declares that the President ought not to be impeached so long as there is any possible doubt as to the constitutionality of the tenure of office bill, and trusts that Congress will take no conclusive action until the Supreme Court's decision thereon is had.

A LEGAL VIEW.

The New York Post, a Radical paper, takes exception to the hot haste in which the House has rushed into impeachment, and advises that the tenure of office bill be tested before the Supreme Court before any other proceeding be had. As to the law it says:

Mr. Madison, who had more to do with the framing of the organic law than any other man, was at first disposed to believe that the consent of the Senate was as necessary to a removal as to an appointment, but he afterwards changed his opinion, and in the Congress of 1789, when the subject was debated, strenuously maintained that the power of removal was an exclusively executive power. During Jackson's administration also, when the Whig party was so incensed by the numerous official decapitations made by the President, Daniel Webster himself admitted that policy and precedent were all on the same side.

But Congress, at a late session, fearing the improper use of this power on the part of the President, passed a law over his veto, providing that no officer shall be removed during a session of Congress without the consent of the Senate, and that any removal made contrary to the provisions of the act should be deemed a misdemeanor, subjecting the offender to legal trial, and, on conviction, to penalty. Senator Sherman asserted on Saturday that this law was not, at the time of its passage, intended to bear upon the change of his Cabinet by the President, but the words of it contain no such exception, and are premptory and explicit.

Now this statute, as it stands, is a law of the land, and it continues such until invalidated by a competent anthority. The President is bound by it as much as any humble citizen, whatever his convictions may be in regard to its constitutionality or its policy. On those points we concur with him; we are sorry that the Congress considered it a duty to take this method of restraining the executive action; and, like Generals Grant and Sherman, we have steadily disapproved of the conduct of Mr. Stanton in consenting to accept position in a Cabinet where he was not wanted, and under a law which his conscience condemns.

ARE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS TO BECOME MERE FARCES?—The New York World says:

The crime for which the President is to be impeached consists simply in the exercise of a right which has been enjoyed by all his predecessors, and belongs to the executive head of every government in the world. This right is called in question by a pretended law, which is in such flagrant violation of the constitution, as well as of all precedents, that this same Stanton, who is a lawyer and has been attorney-general, advised the President to veto it. And now the President is to be impeached in Stanton's interest because he believes the law to be unconstitutional, and institutes proceedings to bring it to a judicial test! If the precedent now set is to be followed, it will be in the power of any future Congress to summarily eject any future President. Congress has merely to pass some unconstitutional law which reverses the whole past practice of the government, and when the President takes the first step for bringing it to a judicial test, forthwith put him out of office by articles of impeachment. We might as well abolish the farce of presidential elections if Congress can thus unmake elected presidents at their caprice.

THE House is making all possible haste to displace President Johnson, but cool heads think it will be some months before the trial can be concluded, and that conviction is far from being certain, Radical as the Senate is. The gravity of the case is beginning to be appreciated throughout the country—and fear of a disastrous political effect is also having weight with Republicans not utterly blinded by party hate.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON closed a conversation on Monday with the remark: "God and the American people will make all right and save our institutions."

JUDGE WOODWARD ON IMPEACHMENT.

Whilst the Impeachment resolution was under discussion in the House, on Monday, Judge Woodward, of this State, made an unanswerable speech, at once creditable to him as a courageous statesman and a profound lawyer. He argued that the resolution of impeachment was a mistake, and that an impeachment of the President on the idea that Secretary Stanton was within the protection of the tenure-of-office bill, was what Fouche, the chief of the old French police, would have called worse than a crime, a blunder. Whatever executive power the Federal government possessed was vested in the President, who was made the sole trustee of the people in that regard. In the matter of appointments to office and the treaty-making function a check was imposed upon the President, but even in those instances the power exercised was the President's. The concurrence of the Senate was only a regulation for the exercise of the power. It was a mere advisory discretion, not an executive power.

The separateness and completeness of this executive power in the hands of the President was a doctrine essential to the harmony of the system of government and to the responsibility of the President to the people. If Congress meddled with it, Congress became a trespasser, and its act an impertinent nullity, and the President was not to be impeached for disregarding it.

He quoted extracts from the debate in the First Congress upon the Executive Department, and argued that that debate settled this question absolutely, and demonstrated the utter unconstitutionality of the act of March 2, 1867. He also argued that by the very terms of that act itself Mr. Stanton did not come within its scope, and quoted Senator Sherman and Messrs. Spalding and Bigham taking that same view of the law when it was under consideration

Mr. Johnson was a man of the Republican party's own choosing, and he verily believed that the President was trying to restore the Union, to pacify the country, and to administer his high office with a faithful regard to the obligations of the Constitution and the best interests of the people. He seemed a true friend to the whole of his country, a faithful public officer, and entitled to Cabinet advisers who were his friends and not his enemies. Congress had far better sustain such a man in his constitutional rights, and address itself to the relief of the suffering country, than to waste its time and the people's money in impeaching a faithful public servant on charges that are both false and foolish. At the risk of denunciation, he (Woodward) denied the right of the Senate to try impeachment.

The House was not composed, as the Constitution required, of members chosen by the people of the several States. Nor was the Senate composed of two Senators from each State. In conclusion, he said: Mr. Speaker, so sure am I that the American people would respect this objection, that if I were the President's counsellor, I would advise him that if you prepare articles of impeachment, to demur both to your jurisdiction and that of the Senate, and to issue a proclamation giving you and all the world notice that whilst he held himself impeachable for misdemeanors in office, before the constitutional tribunal, he never would subject the office he holds in trust for the people to the irregular, unconstitutional, fragmentary bodies who propose to strip him of it. Such a proclamation, with the army and navy in his hands to sustain it, would meet a popular response that would make an end of impeachment and impeachers.

CONGRESS OUGHT TO BE IMPEACHED.—The Lancaster Intelligencer says:

The Radicals in Congress are now busily engaged in an effort to depose the lawfully elected President of the United States. The charge which they bring against him is one to which no criminality attaches. He has done nothing more than all his predecessors in office have stood ready to do whenever the necessity might arise. That the President of the United States had the right to say who should constitute his Cabinet, was never questioned until the present Congress began to usurp the powers of the Executive branch of the Federal Government. The present seeming conflict of authority does not spring from any attempt of the President to overstep the constitutional limits of his powers, but from a deliberate design on the part of a revolutionary Congress to arrogate to itself entire control of the other co-ordinate branches of the government, which were created and designed to continue independent in their respective spheres. While Congress will seek in vain for any act of the President which would even justify censure, that body stands before the country convicted of the grossest political crimes and the most reckless outrages upon the rights and liberties of the people. It is Congress and not the President that deserves to be impeached and removed.

THE morning mongrel organ says "Edwin M. Stanton is one of the greatest constitutional lawyers in the country." So it would seem from the fact that he was the first to advise the President to veto the Tenure of Office bill on account of its unconstitionality, and actually wrote that message himself. He is certainly lawyer enough to know that he cannot hold his present position under that act after a legal decision by the Supreme Court, hence he asks the Rump Congress and the Radical party to prevent the President, by violent proceedings, from appealing to the Court. This shows that however good a lawyer he may be, he is an infamous time-server.—Patriot & Union.

DEMOCRATS and Conservatives! be of good cheer! The infamous revolutionists in Congress are, unwittingly, fighting your battle every hour of their existence. No matter how the impeachment farce may end it will be to them the Dead Sea's fruit—dust and ashes to their lips! Their harsh, unwise, unnecessary, and unconstitutional legislation has thoroughly disgusted the country, that in six months' time they will not have adherents enough among the masses to make a decent funeral. Grant, if nominated, will go down in ignominy and disgrace. Chase, if their standard-bearer, will not poll as repectable a vote as Fremont in 1856. The Radicals sealed their own doom at five o'clock on Monday, the Twenty-fourth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.—Age.

IN a trial on impeachment the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court presides and two-thirds of the Senators are necessary to a conviction. The present Rump or fragmentary Senate stands: Rads 45; Democrats 8—Mr. Thomas, of Maryland, having been rejected lately, no doubt in anticipation of such a trial. Senator Doolittle will vote with the Democracy, making the count stand—Rads 44; Democrats 9. If all the Rads vote together President Johnson would be convicted, of course. However, twenty Senators, from ten of the Southern States, are absent. The presence of these would of course materially change results, and the legality of an impeachment trial in their enforced absence may well be questioned.

A WAY OUT.—The Senate could easily settle the trouble at Washington by regarding the nomination of Mr. Thomas Ewing, by the President, as an olive branch, and confirming him as Secretary of War. Mr. Ewing is experienced in public life, a gentleman of character and position, against whose loyalty during the war there was never a breath of suspicion; he is the father-in-law of Gen. Sherman.—N. Y. Post, Radical.

ANOTHER NEGRO OUTRAGE.—On Saturday morning last, as Mrs. Kunkel, mother of Hon. John C. Kunkel, was returning from market, she was confronted by a negro in River alley, who demanded her money. She said she had none, when the negro took her by the throat and held his hand over her mouth to prevent her from screaming. Some white women approaching, the negro released his hold on Mrs. Kunkel's throat, and struck her a severe blow upon the face, cutting her severely, and then made off.—Harrisburg Patriot & Union.

THE STANTON AFFAIR.

The New York Journal of Commerce, one of the most dispassionate and respectable journals in the country, in an article on the Stanton affair, says:

It must be evident to every candid observer, that the congressional party has made a great mistake in forcing the issue upon the particular point now most prominently in dispute. It is altogether the weakest part of their whole case, and the President has shown no little shrewdness in selecting Mr. Stanton as the object of attack. In the first place the general public feel no personal sympathy for Mr. Stanton. Unscrupulous, overbearing, double faced, and greedily selfish, even the Radicals dislike and mistrust him. Nor have those who defend the tenure-of-office act any strong ground to stand upon in its support. Its constitutionality is, to say the least, very doubtful, and hence they are afraid to submit it to the courts. All other considerations are alike against it. Every one must confess that it seems a great hardship to insist that the President may not select his own Cabinet, nor change those of his constitutional advisers whose opinions are directly adverse to the principles he is endeavoring to establish and maintain. Especially will the people sympathize with him in this struggle to free himself from an obnoxious adviser, when it is remembered that the secretary he would displace was not one of his own appointment, but came to him as a legacy from a former incumbent of the office to which he has succeeded.

Every right-minded man feels that the attempt to force this cabinet officer into the President's counsels, when the latter has signified his unwillingness to continue him in that relation, is an outrage to which no one could be expected to submit patiently.

A GLOOMY PICTURE.

"Let it not be forgotten by Congressmen that our national revenue is less than $5,000,000 a week, or $250,000,000 a year, while our expenditures are $350,000,000, or say $300,000,000, after the proper retrenchment. Is this deficit to continue and to increase? Let the revenue be short next summer, and the party may as well step aside in the most quiet manner possible If in its finances it shall make so great a failure as to increase, instead of diminish, the public debt, 'all the learning and all the piety' of the country can't save it."

We clip the above from the Cincinnati Times, a paper thoroughly devoted to the interests of the Radical party, from which it is evident that the more intelligent and knowing Radicals look upon the Republican party as a stupendous failure, and virtually acknowledge its utter incapacity to successfully administer the Government.

It must not be forgotten that this picture—and a gloomy one it is—of the present condition of affairs, is drawn by a Republican hand. Is further evidence needed to convince the people that a change in the administration of the Government is necessary for the peace, prosperity and progress of the country?

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President received to-day and to-night numerous dispatches from Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York, Indiana, etc., etc., assuring him of the support of the people, pledging any required help in men and money to protect him from Radical usurpations, and illegal and unconstitutional procedure. One dispatch from New York, representing a large body of men, winds up with this sentence: "We will take care of Geary's men."

A PAPER is in course of signature in New York declaring that the subscribers are in favor of forming a series of associations in support of the policy of President Johnson, and are willing to resort to arms to repel any revolutionary attempt on the part of Congress to overthrow the lawful authority of the Chief Executive of the nation.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The Democrats had a caucus to-night in the judiciary committee room of the House, which was largely attended, nearly all the Democratic members of the House and Senate being present. The general situation was discussed and arrangements were made with regard to the coming campaign. In view of the action of the House to-day in limiting debate on the forthcoming impeachment articles, a line of action was agreed upon, and the minority is now thoroughly organized to act with unanimity on every question.

AN EXAMPLE WORTH IMITATING—An active Democrat in one of the townships of Guernsey county, Ohio, has procured the names of every Democratic voter in his own and an adjoining school district as subscribers to a Democratic county paper. That is an example that is worthy of being followed in this and all other counties, in order to secure the ascendancy of Democracy, liberty and constitutional government.

WHEN the Democracy ruled the country $2,400 was sufficient pay for a member of Congress. Since Radicalism came in the pay has been advanced to $10,000. This makes an additional annual expenditure of about $2,470,000. We hear no Radical talk of economizing in this direction.

THE Republicans of Florida have nominated Gellings, a disreputable white man, for Governor, Sanders, a negro, for Lieutenant Governor, and Gibbs, a negro, for Congress. How long will moderate Republicans in the North continue their connection with such a party?

THE Radical Convention of Indiana has nominated Conrad Baker, formerly of this place, for Governor. The Democrats have nominated Senator Hendricks for the same office, and will elect him.

TWO Grant and Fenton ratification meetings have been held in the city of New York within the past ten days. They were both failures, the half of the Cooper Institute not being near full on either occasion. Though Grant is already the candidate of the Radicals, his nomination fails to awaken a spark of enthusiasm among the masses of the people. They are studying the political questions of the day, and preparing to vote against the party, which is putting Grant forward with a very faint hope of electing him.

THE President's reception on Monday evening was one of the most brilliant of the season. A great number of army and navy officers were present, as well as the elite and fashion of the capital. The President never appeared in finer spirits, says a correspondent.

A RADICAL contemporary says "Hancock refuses to obey Grant." If this were true, we might inquire who set the example? Who among our Generals has been so insubordinate as Grant himself?

AT the recent municipal election in Tyrone, Pa., the Democrats made a large gain upon last fall. The "gain" is almost everywhere on the same side—for a white man's government.

THE Indiana Radical State Convention, recently held, passed a resolution declaring that "all bonds issued therefor should be paid in legal tenders, commonly called greenbacks." Let us hear no more Radical denunciation of Mr. Pendleton's plan.

GOVERNOR BULLOCK has vetoed the bill passed by the Massachusetts Legislature, repealing the State Constabulary law.

LETTERS FROM HARRISBURG.

The following letter was written for last week's issue, but came to hand a day too late:

HARRISBURG, Feb. 19, 1868.

Editor Compiler:—Legislation seems to be improving somewhat. The House passed a resolution fixing the final adjournment of the Legislature on the 16th of March. The Senate amended it by putting it to the 25th. I doubt whether they will adjourn that early, yet local bills seem to slacken of late.

Your Damage Bill was reported to the House a few days ago, with a favorable recommendation, and is now on the private calender. It may be reached this week. As to its fate, I am not Yankee enough even to give a "guess" that could be relied on. This much I do know, that it is a very unpopular bill among members not immediately interested. And what makes it more doubtful this session, is the fact that last winter about sixty members knew that that was their last term, and that about sixty-five are new members this year, all of whom look for a re-election. I overheard a member reply to one of its friends, last night, "I would like very well to vote for your bill, but many of my constituents are op[illegible]—they think it will open the door to [illegible] on the Treasury that will be too heavily felt by the tax-payers." Last session was the most opportune time. If your Senator had done his duty, I verily believe your citizens would now have some of the money in their pockets.

The bill spoken of by me in my last letter, concerning a Railroad from the Hanover Junction to Peachbottom, &c, was submitted to the House the other day. There is no doubt of its passage in both branches. I was told by a gentleman present on the occasion, that a very large meeting was held in Fawn township, York county, one day last week, for making arrangements and taking up subscriptions, and that one hundred and fifty thousand dollars were subscribed on the spot. About three hundred persons were present. The people of the lower end of that county are quite enthusiastic. It seems to me your citizens ought to bestir themselves a little.

The Free Railroad Law passed by the House, is now up in the Senate. It meets with strong opposition there. In all likelihood it will be loaded down with provisions making it inoperative in most localities. The original bill required two thousand dollars to be subscribed per mile before operations could be commenced—the House made it four thousand, and the Senate last night made it ten thousand. From this you may judge of its character when done with in the Senate.

The Turnpike bill, of which I think I said something in one of my letters, was reported by the committee to the House with an amendment, striking out the second section, empowering the company to collect toll at any place along the road, &c. In that shape it received its second reading yesterday. I presume it will pass in that shape.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 24, 1868.

Editor Compiler:—There is considerable excitement here concerning the attitude Congress and Stanton have assumed towards the President's lawful and just rights in the appointment of his immediate advisers, his Cabinet. Ten years ago, and less than that, had any person said that the President should have withheld from him the power to appoint a friend, and be compelled to appoint, or have thrust upon him against his will, an enemy—a personal enemy—as his immediate adviser upon national affairs, he would have been pronounced a fool by all parties. Yet this is the case with the Radicals now. The people are anxiously waiting on every telegraphic dispatch.

The Border Damage bill is now on file and on the private calender, and may be reached in a few days. I don't know much of its probable success—some speak well, others discouragingly. It will soon be solved. This much I do know, that last year was the accepted time, and had it been handled rightly in the Senate by your representative there, the bill would now be a law, and your citizens would have the first instalment in their pockets. This is not only my opinion here, but is the opinion of every person who has taken any interest in the matter. Your Senator dabbles in everything but that which relates to the interests of his immediate constituents. The other day, the 20th, I think, he introduced a resolution to procure and engrave, by the Auditor General, State Treasurer, a committee of three from the House and three from the Senate, in conjunction with the Governor, a certificate of honor, in which shall be embodied his resolution; and a copy of such certificate under the direction of the Governor, to be given to each honorably discharged soldier or sailor from Pennsylvania, and one to the widow, if living, and if dead, to the family or orphans of each sailor or soldier who fell in battle, &c., and for the payment of which the Governor is to draw by warrant upon the State Treasury. The Senator supported his bill in his usual vain and egotistical style as being due to the soldier, &c. It was opposed by Senators on both sides as useless and expensive—that it would cost the State at least one hundred thousand dollars, and the money could be better used for other meritorious purposes than to expend it in useless baubles, which soldiers would not care for. The subject was laid aside for some future day.

The bill to repeal the negro railroad car privilege, giving him preference to whites in cars, was voted down the other day by a solid party vote. This shows the fact that the Republicans are yet willing that the dirty negro shall be vested with the right to go into a ladies' car and sit down by the side of your daughter or wife.

On Friday the bill came up in the House for changing the mode of electing School Directors in Lancaster city, &c. The bill is adroitly drawn up to embrace the negro, in this wise—"being citizens of Lancaster, being citizens of the United States." A Democrat, Mr. Jones, of Berks, moved to amend by inserting the word "white." This gave rise to an animated debate, in which Hickman took an active part. He went against his party in this matter, and said that if the word "white" should not be struck out of the Constitution of the State, it should be inserted in this bill. He was very severe on his party friends and denounced them in round terms. It will come up again to-day. Hickman has the floor. It is supposed the Republicans will pass it almost instanter when it comes up this evening by calling the previous question.

The Free Railroad bill came back to the House from the Senate on Friday, in the form of a new bill altogether. They say it is burdened down with so many objectionable features that it would be entirely useless to the country.

A general law or bill was passed the other day by the House, giving a pension, &c., to the soldiers of 1812. Such as served one month in that war and are in indigent circumstances, are to reap its benefits. The Senate has yet to act upon it. I think it will pass that body also.

The House also passed the bill in relation to the York and Gettysburg Turnpike Company. The bill as presented authorized the change of the corporate name of the company, legalizing the election of its officers, and changing the mode of collecting the toll on said road. The second section containing the change in the collection of the toll was stricken out in the committee, and it passed the House in that shape. It is now in the Senate for concurrence.

To-morrow evening the resolution giving the negro the right to vote in the State by changing the Constitution will come up again. Sharp debating is anticipated.

It is extremely cold and snowing. Yesterday was very cold.

PHRENAKOSMIAN ANNIVERSARY.

The anniversary exercises of the Phrenakosmian Society of Pennsylvania College, announced in last week's paper, took place in Agricultural Hall on Saturday evening last. The exercises consisted of eight orations by members of said Society and music by a select choir of ladies and gentlemen, accompanied by a few instruments, such as flutes, violin and organ.

It has seldom been our good fortune to attend an entertainment where everything passed off as pleasantly and agreeably to both audience and performers as on the occasion in question. So far as we are aware there was nothing said or done that was in the least degree calculated to wound the feelings of the most sensitive, or mar the harmony and good feeling which should always prevail on such occasions. Even politics, which usually plays a prominent part in College sophomoric performances, was for once omitted. We commend the good taste of the gentlemen of the Phrenakosmian Society in discarding so distracting a subject, the discussion of which before a promiscuous assembly is always productive only of mischief. We trust the College Faculty will take the hint and exclude, hereafter and forever, inevitable politics from their commencements.

The music was by all pronounced as very fine. The speeches were all well written and well delivered. As all acquitted themselves with much credit, it would be invidious to particularize.

We must therefore content ourselves with simply giving the names of the speakers and their subjects. They were as follows: "Liberty," Jacob Rhone; "Freedom of the Press," J. W. Richard; "Torments of Conscience," H. Alleman; "Permanence of Literary Fame," W. A. List; "Nothing is lost," A. J. Erdman; "Wrongs of Ireland," T. R. Bieber; "Poetry," A. S. Hartman; "Shakspeare on Retribution," P. R. Erdman.

The large and spacious hall was crowded to its utmost capacity. Good order was maintained throughout. We hope that the custom of holding Phrenakosmian anniversary exercises, thus revived, may be continued in the future. The gentlemen who had the matter in charge have reason to feel proud of the success of their undertaking, and, although they are temporarily in the minority, they fully make up in ability and sterling worth what they lack in numbers.

CITIZEN.

THOMAS C. M'CREARY was elected United States Senator by the Kentucky Legislature on Tuesday. The vote stood: M'Creary, Democrat, 110; Barnes, Radical, 9; Harding, third party, 5.

Local Department.

TOWN, COUNTY AND SURROUNDING COUNTIES.

Lent commenced on Wednesday.

"Old Times" must go over until next week, on account of a press of other matter to-day.

New Proprietor.—Wm. M. Rupert, of Fayetteville, succeeds Mr. Sellers in the proprietorship of the Washington House, Chambersburg.

Snow.—Nine inches of snow fell here on Monday last. Several attempts to increase the depth since, but of little effect. Oh for June and blue birds, salad and strawberries, and such!

Township Meeting.—The Democrats of Huntington township are requested to meet at the public house of Mrs. Reed, in Petersburg, on Saturday, March 14th, to settle a ticket to be supported at the Spring Election.

Death Warrant.—Gov. Geary has issued the death warrant of Wm. Donovan, convicted at York of the murder of the Squibb family. The execution will take place on the 31st of March.

Exhibitions.—Exhibitions will be given by Center Mills School on Thursday and Friday evenings of next week, to consist of speeches, dialogues, music, &c. The teachers, Mr. A. Howard and Miss Isabel Weaver, are sparing no efforts to make the exhibitions interesting. The public are invited.

Removed.—McDonald and Williams, arrested at Fairfield and lodged in jail here, for robbing the store of J. W. Miller, near Mechanicstown, Md., were, last week, removed by the Sheriff of Frederick county, on requisition of the Governor.

Sales.—Wm. D. Holtzworth sold, on Saturday last, a house and lot in East Middle street, at $950—Dr. E. G. Fahnestock purchaser.

Daniel Lashell has sold his house and lot, on Washington street, to Rev. Mr. Jamison, of the Associate Reformed Church, for $1,150 cash.

Blanks.—Common, Executors' and Administrators' Deeds, Mortgages, Common and Judgment Bonds, Amicable Actions, Promissory, Judgment and Waiver Notes, Summonses, Supœnas, School Orders and Statements, and all other BLANKS—printed on the best of paper, and with clear type—can always be had at the COMPILER office.

Cure for Frosted Limbs.—We are informed on good authority, says the Country Gentleman, that nothing is better for withdrawing the frost without injury to frozen ears, cheeks and fingers than the immediate application of kerosene—rubbing it on gently a few times. The application must be made before thawing.

Damage Bill.—The Border Damage bill came up in the House on Tuesday. Its old Radical enemy, Mann, of Potter, who last winter denounced the people of this county as extortionists and traitors, objected it off. It will now go over until all the bills on the private calendar are reached. Mr. Winger, of Franklin, and Mr. Heltzel, of this county, are standing up manfully for it, and it is most fervently to be hoped that this measure of justice will not be longer withheld. Every consideration of State faith demands it.

Spring Elections.—The elections for township officers will occur on the third Friday of March. Our Democratic friends should bestir themselves in order to secure the best tickets possible, and then all rally to their support. Remember, every vote cast for a Democratic candidate is a vote in favor of a White Man's government. Wherever the Radicals may succeed it will be claimed as an endorsement of the negro domination and amalgamation theories of the leaders of that party. White men, choose!

Lecture.—As we predicted, the Readings by Rev. Dr. Morris, of Baltimore, in Agricultural Hall, on Friday evening, proved a rare treat, giving unbounded satisfaction to a large and appreciative audience. He rendered "The Raven" faultlessly, proved himself very apt in Shakspeare, and was almost inimitable in the "Pickwick Papers." "Here she goes and there she goes," was also capitally done. We trust the committee will be able to offer our people more of "the same sort."

Rev. Dr. McCron, of Baltimore, will lecture to-night. Subject—"Industry—Its Trials and Triumphs."

The 22d.—The memory of Washington was duly honored in this place, on Saturday last, the stores and places of business being generally closed during the afternoon. The Zouaves were out in full dress, parading the streets, while numerous national flags were displayed from public buildings and private residences. The Zouaves went through their usual drill, attracting much attention, by reason of the precision and skill with which the commands were executed. In the target firing Charles Cilbert, of Mountjoy township, proved the best shot, and takes the Company medal for the ensuing year.—Star.

Coe's Cough Balsam—The great popular Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough and Consumption.—Both sizes—ordinary 4 oz., also mammoth family bottles—for sale by all druggists and dealers in medicines. No family should be over night without it in the house.

"Five Minutes for Refreshment."—Everybody who has travelled by railroad has heard the above announcement, and has probably suffered from eating too hastily, thereby sowing the seeds of Dyspepsia. It is a comfort to know that the Peruvian Syrup will cure the worst cases of Dyspepsia, as thousands are ready to testify.

We judge from the immense sales that MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER or DRESSING (in one bottle) is preferred by every one. Every Druggist sells it. Price One Dollar.

Speer's Port Wine.—The Port grape is now cultivated in this country for a wine unexcelled by any other, in its mellow juiciness, richness of flavor, and brilliancy of color. The grape has been brought to a perfection never attained in Portugal, by Mr. A. Speer, in his vineyard, New Jersey. Physicians say it is superior to imported Port for invalids, and in summer it is more agreeable and refreshing than claret. Clergymen use it for its purity as a communion wine, while the most fashionable families drink it as a dinner wine.—N. Y. Tribune.

Some of our druggists keep it.

Of the almost innumerable number of preparations in the market for restoring gray hair to its original color, we know none of which gives so universal satisfaction as Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia. We have tried it and found it to restore the color in a truly wonderful manner—as well as to remove dandruff and all itching caused by humors of the scalp. Try it and be satisfied.

THE Rads have carried the municipal election in Syracuse, New York, by about one hundred majority. Last year the Democracy had 67 majority, but the year before the Rads had 545 majority.

MARRIED.

On Tuesday, Feb. 18th, at Conowago Chapel, by Rev. Father Villiger, Mr. WM. COLTON, of Baltimore, to Miss ANNIE A. SMITH, of Conowago.

With sincere wishes that the happy pair may enjoy many bright days "of sunshine and roses," with much patience smoothing life's path, we bid them proceed joyously on their new career.

On the 20th inst., by the Rev. D. W. Wolff, Mr. ISRAEL SLOTHOUR, of Straban township, to Miss JENNIE A. STOVER, of Mummasburg.

On Thursday, 20th inst., by Rev. Dr. Hauer, Mr. SAMUEL H. DUNCAN to Miss KATE E. GATES, both of Hamilton township.

On the 18th inst., by Rev. M. Snyder, Mr. JESSE F. SLAYBAUGH to Miss EMMA A. BRICKER, both of this county.

On the 25th inst., by Rev. E. Briedenbaugh, Mr. EPHRAIM SHEELY to Miss LEAH E. ECKERT, both of Franklin township.

On the 18th inst., by Rev. E. Breidenbaugh, Mr. WILLIAM TOPPER, of Fairfield, to Miss LYDIA BAKER, of Liberty township.

On the 19th inst., at Gettysburg, by the Rev. John Jemison, Mr. GEORGE W. YOUNG to Miss JENNIE C. BRICKEL, both of Adams county.

DIED.

On the 20th inst., Mrs. RACHEL, wife of John Gulden, aged 80 years 10 months and 5 days.

On the 18th inst., at New Chester, Mrs. SARAH HENRY, aged 80 years 3 months and 2 days.

On the 13th inst., at the residence of her son, Ephraim Myers, Esq., in Littlestown, Pa., Mrs. SUSANNA, wife of George Myers, deceased, aged 61 years 5 months and 25 days.

On the 16th inst., AARON BAUM, of Franklin township, aged 20 years 7 months and 28 days.

On the 19th inst., near New Chester, WILSIE, son of Jacob March, aged 2 years 10 months and 7 days.

On the 21th inst., in Straban township, Mrs. MARIA MAGDALENE, wife of Mr. Peter Epley, aged 59 years 6 months and 17 days.

A devoted wife—a kind and affectionate mother—a good neighbor. She will be missed, but we hope that our loss is her eternal gain. Her sufferings were of short duration, when death gave her wings to rise above the spheres to "die no more."

Communicated.

On the 17th inst., Mrs. HANNAH LOUISA, wife of Mr. Daniel H. Klingel, of this place, aged 31 years 10 months and 14 days.

She sleeps! Hushed be each anxious sigh,
Calm'd the deep throbbings of each stricken heart.
She sleeps! With her life's day has closed,
Its early dreams, its joys, its woes are passed.
Calmly serene her sun has set. Peaceful,
Nay, joyously, she laid her down to rest.
The throbbing head lies still; the beating pulse
Is o'er; no feverish dreams, no wakeful
Hours disturb her now.
Then wherefore weep that one so poor hath pass'd
From earth; that gently, yes, gladly she sought
Her home above. Weep not for her, lament
Her not, ye who have loved her long
And true. Mourn not the wife, the mother dead.
Dispel your gloom, wipe all your tears and bow
In meek submission to thy Father's will.
Remember that in mercy he hath dealt
The blow; that he that "doeth all things well"
Didst kindly give thy treasure and only
Now again didst claim it as his own.
Raise then thy thoughts above. Give to thy God
Thy heart's affections. Press onward in thy Christian course. Do well thy Master's work;
And when at last to thee life's end shall come,
May'st thou, like her whom now thou'st call'd to mourn,
As calm, as peacefully go to thy rest.
'Till then, low bend thy head and may thy heart
In meekness breathe, "Father, thy will be done!"

628 HOOP SKIRTS. 628

WM. T. HOPKINS' "OWN MAKE"
OF
"KEYSTONE SKIRTS,"

ARE the best and CHEAPEST LOW PRICED Hoop Skirts in the market. Trail Skirts, 25 springs, $1.00; 31 springs, $1.20; and 40 springs, $1.45. Plain Skirts, 6 tapes, 20 springs, 80 Cents; 25 springs, 95 Cents; 30 springs, $1.15; and 35 springs, $1.25. Warranted in every respect.

"Our OWN Make" of "UNION SKIRTS," Eleven Tape Trails, from 20 to 50 springs, $1.20 to $2.50. Plain, Six Tapes, 20 to 50 springs, from 95 Cents to $2.00. These Skirts are better than those sold by other establishments as first class goods, and at much lower prices.

"Our OWN Make" of "CHAMPION SKIRTS" are in every way superior to all other Hoop Skirts before the public, and only have to be examined or worn to convince every one of the fact. Manufactured of the best linen-finished English Steel Springs, very superior tapes, and the style of the metallic fastenings and manner of securing them surpass for durability and excellence any other Skirt in this country, and are lighter, more elastic, wear longer, give more satisfaction, and are really cheaper than all others. Every lady should try them. They are being sold extensively by Merchants throughout this and the adjoining states at very moderate prices. If you want the best ask for "Hopkins' Champion Skirt." If you do not find them, get the merchant with whom you deal to order them for you, or come or send direct to us. Merchants will find our different grades of Skirts exactly what they need, and we especially invite them to call and examine our extensive assortment, or send for Wholesale Price List.

To be had at Retail at Manufactory, and of the Retail Trade generally, and at Wholesale of the Manufacturer only, to whom all orders should be addressed.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cents.

Thousands of Children die annually of Croup. Now, mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of Dr. Tobias' Venitian Liniment in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 20 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cases of cures have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throats, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores, and Pains in the Back and Chest. No one tries it who is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full Directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists. Depot, 56 Cortland Street, New York.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Where this article is known it is a work of supererogation to say one word in its favor, so well is it established as an unfailing remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs, as well as that most dreaded of all diseases, Consumption, which high medical authority has pronounced to be a curable disease. Those who have used this remedy know its value; those who have not, have but to make a single trial to be satisfied that of all others it is the remedy.

THE REV. JACOB SECHLER,

well known and much respected among the German population of this country, writes as follows:—

HANOVER, PA., Feb. 16, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & SON, Boston.

Dear Sirs:—Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago, one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of it there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefited by it. I would, however, caution the public against imposition, because there is a good deal of spurious Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry afloat throughout the country. JACOB SECHLER.

None genuine unless signed "I. BUTTS" on the wrapper.

Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & SON, 18 Tremont St., Boston, and for sale by Druggists generally.

CHRONIC DISEASE, SCROFULA, ULCERS, &C.

It is well known that the benefits derived from drinking of the CONGRESS, SARATOGA and other celebrated Springs is principally owing to the Iodine they contain.

DR. H. ANDERS' IODINE WATER

contains Iodine in the same pure state that it is found in these spring waters, but over 500 per cent. more in quantity, containing as it does 1½ grains to each fluid ounce, dissolved in pure water, without a solvent, a discovery long sought for, in this country and Europe, and is the best remedy in the world for Scrofula, Cancers, Salt Rheum, Ulcers, and all Chronic Diseases. Circulars free.

THE "POULTERERS' FRIEND,"
A CERTAIN CURE FOR
GAPES IN CHICKENS AND TURKEYS.
Will prevent and cure CHICKEN CHOLERA, and other Diseases common to Poultry, and will promote an increase of Fat.
Full Directions accompany each Package.
PRICE 25 CENTS.

THE annexed are a few of the certificates we have received in proof of the great value and efficacy of the Poulterers' Friend:

CARROLLTON, Baltimore co., Md., December 16th, 1867.

Messrs. Clotworthy & Co.:

Gentlemen:—I have used your "Poulterers' Friend" upon a brood of young chickens that had the gapes, and am happy to say, that by the use of a few doses they were entirely cured. It will certainly cure the gapes when used according to directions.

Yours, &c.,
GEO. HARMAN.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 7th, 1868.

Messrs. Clotworty & Co.:

Gentlemen:—I have sold all the "Poulterers' Friend" I received from you last August. The poultry in the surrounding country was dying very fast with "Cholera." I recommended your "Poulterers' Friend," and as far as I could learn, it has proven a cure for the disease.

Respectfully,
W. R. GOODMAN.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 2d, 1868.

Messrs. Clotworthy & Co.:

Gentlemen:—My chickens were dying very fast with what my neighbors called "Chicken Cholera." I was induced to try your "Poulterers' Friend," and it worked like a charm. I gave it as directed, and it cured those that were then sick, and I have not seen any symptoms of the disease since.

Yours, &c.,
B. MENCKEN, Cross & Warner Sts.

JEFFERSON, Frederick co., Md., July 22d, 1867.

Messrs. Clotworthy & Co., Baltimore:

Gentlemen:—The wonderful cures which have been made by your "Poulterers' Friend" can not fail to interest all who raise Poultry. A gentleman of this village has been experimenting on chickens with the gapes. He tried your "Poulterers' Friend," according to the directions, and it had the desired effect in destroying the worm, effectually relieving the chicken at once. Since then I have had many calls for it, and it has been used extensively with the same result. It is of incalculable value to all who raise Poultry.

Respectfully,
A. SPENCER.

ROTATION—MANURES.

There is such a thing as science and progress in conducting the operations of the farm and garden; and, with judicious management, crops may be increased, from year to year, until every acre and fruit tree will yield an annual crop equal to the nature of the climate and the capacity of the soil.

The first thing is to know what to do, and the second is the most effectual and feasible manner of performing the operation. Science assures us that a judicious "rotation system" of operations, both on the farm and in the garden, is better for the soil and more satisfactory for the pocket of the proprietor. And the rotation system extends to the application of fertilizing matter to the land, as well as to the production of crops. A rotation in the application of manure is a subject that is seldom thought of; and it applies especially to such cultivators as depend on mineral and commercial manures.

Lime, for example, is the very foundation of successful agriculture in certain sections of the country. But, instead of applying this material every season, the result will be found more satisfactory to try something else. Wood ashes have been applied to some land with results so satisfactory that the bountiful crops were really surprising to every beholder. But after a few dressings with ashes, even a bountiful application failed to produce an increase in the crop. A dressing of bone dust supplied what was lacking in the soil, so that the following crop was heavier than any previous harvest. If guano has been employed, let superphosphate or some other fertilizer be applied.

Gypsum has been sown on some farms for many successive seasons; and, in some instances, the effect is so unsatisfactory that the proprietors are in doubt as to the efficiency of the fertilizer.

Science suggests a rotation in such instances. The growing plants show that the soil does not lack sulphate of lime. There is in most soils, however, a deficiency of potash. Instead, therefore, of applying gypsum every year, give the land a dressing of ashes. If the soil has been dressed with straw manure for many years, let the value of a yearly dressing be invested in guano, bone dust, superphosphate, or some other commercial manure, and let this be applied instead of so much straw material. Straw will not produce much fruit.—Straw manure will give a heavy burden of vines and stalks. But in order to get a satisfactory crop of grain, or vegetables, some material must be applied that will supply the growing plants with the substance that every plant must have to develop the fruit in the form of grain or vegetables.

Here is where science comes to our assistance. The man whose mind has been enlightened by the study of the soil, who has made himself familiar with the requirements of growing plants, will be able to determine, with almost unerring certainty, what is lacking in order to produce a satisfactory crop of cereal grain, grass, fruit or vegetables.

Let a practical example suffice: Last season when we were on the experimental farm of the Government, at Washington, the Assistant Clerk showed us the growing crops. The wheat appeared large enough to yield fifty bushels of grain per acre. But the heads of grain were unusually light, and the kernels small, simply because the land had not been fertilized with wheat producing material. He also showed the heaviest burden of squash vines that we ever saw. Indeed they formed a complete mat. But on the entire plot there was not as much fruit as a South Jersey gardener gathers from two hills. There was a deficiency of nitrogenous material such as we find in the accumulations of cattle stalls and sheep sheds where the animals have been fattened with corn meal and oil cake. In the manure of animals fattened on such feed there is an abundance of just such pabulum as the growing plants must have to make them produce bountiful crops, while in the accumulations of stables where horses get very little grain, where sheep are half starved on poor hay and mouldy corn stalks, and where cows get nothing but damaged hay, cabbage leaves and a pailful of dish-water, with a pound or two of buckwheat bran in it, there will be fertilizing matter in the manure to make a heavy burden of straw and vines, and only a small yield of fruit.

NEW AND CHEAP CLOTHING

AT BRINKERHOFF'S.

STACKS OF THEM!

J. BRINKERHOFF, corner of the Diamond and York street, has just returned from the city with an unusually attractive assortment of which he will sell at such prices as cannot fail to take them off very rapidly. Call and judge for yourselves. To look at the excellent material, tasteful cutting, and neat and substantial sewing, and then to get his low prices—callers cannot help but buy, when they see it so much to their interest to do so.

CLOTHING FOR SPRING & SUMMER WEAR,

He has Coats, Pants, Vests, of all styles and materials;

Hats, Boots and Shoes;

Shirts, of all kinds, Hosiery, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Neck-ties, Cravats, Linen and Paper Collars, Suspenders, Brushes, Combs;

Trunks, Valises, Umbrellas, Pocket Knives, Segars, Smoking and Chewing Tobaccos, Pipes, Stationery, &c

Clocks, Watches, Jewelry, with a thousand and one other articles, entirely too numerous to detail in a newspaper advertisement.

He asks the attention of the public to his new stock, confident that it will please—and no one can or will sell cheaper. Don't forget the place—corner of York street and the Diamond, Gettysburg.

LUMBER, COAL,

STOVES, TIN-WARE, &C.

Corner of Carlisle Street and the Railroad,

GETTYSBURG, PA.

AN IMMENSE STOCK!

IN order to give the public something like an adequate idea of the immense stock of Lumber, Coal, Stoves, Tin-ware, &c., &c., on hand and for sale by the undersigned, at his establishment, in Carlisle street, across the Railroad from the Passenger Station, he would enumerate as far as the limits of a newspaper advertisement will allow:

IN THE LUMBER LINE:

Boards and Plank of every grade, from cullings to panel, Joists and Scantling, pine and hemlock, Siding, planed and unplaned, Flooring, Shingles, Shingle Laths, Plastering Laths, Pickets, ready-made Doors and Sash, Blinds and Shutters,—in fact, everything used for building purposes.

IN THE COAL LINE:

Shamokin White Ash and Lykens' Valley Red Ash, those two varieties being the purest and best for all domestic purposes. Also the very best Broad-top and Allegheny Smith Coal

IN THE STOVE LINE:

Waverly, Noble Cook, Royal Cook, Barley Sheaf, Oriental, Stewart's Cook, Ornamental, Excelsior, Prince Royal and the Emerald Cooking Stoves, all for coal or wood. These varieties are a selection from the best and most popular Cooking Stoves the market affords, and are all warranted to give entire satisfaction. Also, a very large variety of Parlor, Saloon and Shop Stoves, for coal or wood, including the celebrated Morning Glory, the Vulcan, Oval Meteor, Round Meteor, Dial, Violet, Gem, Regulator, Comet, Egg, New Egg, Parlor Cook, &c., &c. Fire Brick and Grates, for coal or wood, always on hand.

IN THE TIN-WARE LINE:

The assortment embraces everything necessary for kitchen or household purposes, including a large number of convenient yet cheap articles of new design which must be seen to be appreciated. The stock is so large and varied that those who have not visited the establishment have no conception of its extent. In addition to the ordinary kitchen utensils, it includes Bathing Vessels, Toilet Chamber Sets, plain and fancy, Chamber Buckets, Bread and Spice Boxes, Tea and Coffee Canisters, Deed Boxes, Spittoons, Tumbler Drainers, Bill-head Boxes, Waiters, Ale Carriers, Water Coolers, Slaw Cutters, Nurse Lamps, Jelly Moulds, Pudding Moulds, Patent Nutmeg Graters, Comb Cases, Gen. Grant Plates, and A B C Plates, Ash Buckets, Flour Sieves, Bird Cages, Spout Heads, Coffee Mills, Lanterns, Basting Spoons, Large Forks, Candle Sticks, Candle Moulds, Copper Dippers, Wrought-iron Frying Pans, Smoothing Irons, Foot Scrapers, Coffee Roasters, Waffle Irons, Snuffers, Dinner and Auctioneer Bells, Egg Beaters, Oilers, Fluted Funnels, Cool Sieves, Glass-top Fruit Cans, Plain-top Fruit Cans, Self-sealing Jars, &c., &c. Tin-ware made to order, and repairing promptly attended to, by the best of workmen.

IN THE HOLLOW-WARE LINE:

Cast-iron Pots, of every size and variety, for stoves, Porcelain Kettles, for cooking and preserving, Tin-lined Kettles for ditto, Cast-iron Stew Pans, of every size and variety, Porcelain and tinned, with a thousand and one other articles impossible to enumerate in an advertisement.

Attention is specially directed to three valuable patents for which he is agent, and about which there is no humbug, as can be attested by scores who have used them, viz: THE UNIVERSAL CLOTHES-WRINGER, DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE, and the celebrated DIAMOND CHURN.

The public are invited to call and examine goods and prices. He guarantees to sell everything in his line at exceeding low figures. Come and see, to gratify your curiosity, if you do not want to buy. No trouble to show goods.

respectfully inform the public that they are prepared to furnish Pianos of the following manufacture or of any other make that may be preferred:

Albright, Reikes & Schmidt,
Chickering & Son, Bradbury,
Knabe & Son, Gale & Son,

ESTEY'S CELEBRATED
COTTAGE, HARMONIC AND BOUDOIR
ORGANS AND MELODEONS.

These Instruments stand unrivalled by anything found in this country or in Europe, as is admitted by all impartial judges. The most eminent Pipe Organ Builders and Performers, the last to discover excellence in reed Tone, pronounced them vastly superior to all others for exceedingly quick articulation and round Tone, the essential feature in instruments of this class. We invite the severe scrutiny and criticism of all.

PATENT VOX HUMANA TREMOLO.

This late and most wonderful invention (so acknowledged by all leading artists) will be found only in the Estey Instruments. In attempting to describe the effect of this stop, we are at loss for language. Its beauties cannot be written, but must be heard to be appreciated. By this stop an ordinary performer can produce an effect which requires a life time of practice for an artist upon a violin. It entirely changes the reed Tone, giving the sympathetic sweetness of the human voice, making it so melodious and pure that it never fails to enchant the listener.

THE HARMONIC ORGAN

for Churches, Public Halls and Parlors has a powerful sub-Bass with independent reeds, Harmonic attachment and Vox Humana Tremolo, and is believed to be the most powerful reed organ made, being nearly equal to a Pipe Organ of three times the cost.

All instruments warranted for five years.

☞BRASS BANDS supplied with instruments and music at reasonable terms.

A liberal discount allowed for Churches and Sabbath Schools.

☞Instructions given both in Vocal and Instrumental Music, at our rooms, and at pupils' homes, either to individuals or classes, on reasonable terms.

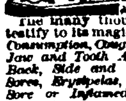
DR. L. J. GROVE'S

UNIVERSAL

Magnetic Salve and Plaster.



This deservedly popular remedy, having been greatly improved, is now offered to the citizens of Adams county.

The many thousands who are daily using it, testify to its magical virtues in the early stages of Consumption, Coughs, local Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Jaw and Tooth Ache, Weakness and Pain in the Back, Side and Kidneys, Cancer, Scrofula, Old Sores, Erysipelas, Fresh Wounds, Burns, Bruises, Sore or Inflamed Breasts, Inverted Toe Nails, Corns, Bunions, &c., &c.

Its mysterious virtues, and the wonderful cures it has performed, might be published; but the discoverer is willing to rely on its intrinsic merits, in order to introduce it into every family in the country.

Prepared only by the proprietor, 255 E. Lombard Street, Baltimore, and sold by A. D. BUEHLER, Dr. R. HORNER, and J. S. FORNEY, Gettysburg, and by the merchants of the county.

SEWING MACHINES.

The Grover & Baker.—The Best in Use.

THESE Machines have become so well known that little need be said by way of recommendation. They have taken the first premium at all the late State Fairs, and are universally acknowledged to be the BEST in use by all who have tried them. The "Grover & Baker Stitch" and the "Shuttle Stitch" are points that have been attained by no other Machine. They are the only machines that sew and embroider with perfection. These Machines are peculiarly adapted to Family use. They are noiseless, sew directly from the spool without rewinding, and are simple in their construction. They are easy to manage, and can be worked by almost any child. Every family should have one They save labor, they save time, and they save money, and do their work better than it can be done by hand.

The undersigned having been appointed Agent for the above Machines, has established an Agency in Fairfield, Adams county, where he will always have on hand a supply. Persons wishing to buy will please call and examine for themselves.

Coe's Dyspepsia Cure!

THIS Great Remedy for all Diseases of the STOMACH, is the discovery of the inventor of Coe's Valuable Cough Balsam, while experimenting for his health. It cured Cramp in the Stomach for him which had before yielded to nothing but chloroform.

The almost daily testimony from various parts of the country encourages us to believe there is no disease caused by a disordered stomach it will not speedily cure.

Physicians Endorse and Use It.

Ministers give Testimony of its Efficacy!

And from all directions we receive tidings of cures performed.

DYSPEPSIA! It is sure to cure.
HEARTBURN! One dose will cure.
SICK-HEADACHE! It has cured in hundreds of cases.
HEADACHE AND DIZZINESS! It stops in thirty minutes.
ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH! It corrects at once.
RISING OF THE FOOD! It stops immediately.
DISTRESS AFTER EATING! One dose will remove.
CHOLERA MORBUS! Rapidly yields to a few doses.
BAD BREATH! Will be changed with half a bottle.

It is Perfectly Harmless!

Its UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS is owing to the fact that IT CURES BY ASSISTING NATURE to re-assert her sway in the system!

Nearly every dealer in the United States sells it at ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

REFERENCES.

During the four years we have been agents for European manufacturers, we have received hundreds of commendatory notices from the press, and letters from private individuals, expressing the highest satisfaction with our method of doing business. We have many of these testimonials with names and dates, printed in pamphlet form, and as we have no space for them in this advertisement, we will send copies free to any address.

Whenever desired, we will send articles by Express, C. O. D. So that the money need only be paid ON DELIVERY OF THE GOODS.

We accept the entire responsibility of money sent by Express, Post Office Order, or Bank Draft.

We want agents EVERYWHERE to whom a liberal compensation will be paid, which can be learned on application.
